6.—There will be an able police force at the grounds to keep order (They will be instructed to enforce Rule 5).

7.—The Club will not hold itself responsible for loss or damage to any articles on exhibition.

8.—All exhibits shall be kept on the grounds until after three o'clock P. M.

9.—When two articles in the same class are adjudged entitled to first Premium, the first and second Premiums will be equally divided between such contestants.

10.—All Premiums awarded, except Trotting Purses and Specials, may be liable to a pro rata reduction sufficient to meet any deficiency that may occur in receipts, to meet said Premiums and other expenses of the Fair.

11.—Any exhibitor, who, in any way, interferes with a judge when engaged in the performance of his duty as such, or seeks to influence his decision by suggestions or otherwise, shall be debarred from competition for the Premiums offered under the class of said judge.

15.—Exhibitors are requested to send a list of entries before the day of the Fair, if possible, to the entry clerk, H. W. Taylor.

TO OUR PATRONS AND EXHIBITORS

It is no common-place task to maintain and conduct a successful Fair. It requires hard and constant labor to make the preparations, experience and skill to put the exhibition in motion.

The managers of The Groton Fair, realizing the necessity of these requirements, are giving the work more than usual care.

They desire to express their sense of gratitude to their friends and patrons for the support they have so generously given them in the past, without which it would be impossible to make a fair entertaining, enjoyable and profitable.

By an examination of this, our Fifty-Sixth Premium List, it will be seen that the arrangements for the coming Fair are more extensive than any former year, and cannot fail to inspire an exhibition of the highest and best character.

The Premium List has been enlarged in many cases. In Class 9, a third premium is offered, while the first and second premiums have been increased. In Class 11, the number of specimens called for have been reduced from 8 to 5. A new class, Class 13, Canned Goods, has been added and a large amount of money offered on premiums. This is split so that the small exhibitor, as well as the larger one, is able to show his products.

All these things are done for the benefit of the exhibitors.

To all we say, Come renew your spirits by mingling with your fellowmen, devote a day to pleasure and harmless enjoyment. Remember that the Groton Fair is an institution for the people and by the people.

In extending this invitation again to our friends we promise that while with us they shall receive respectful attention, liberal treatment and witness an instructive and elevating entertainment.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.
